THE DIFFERENT TRACK

The shape is the thing, left: A bright beacon called "Futuristic Accent," created by Schiller Bros. It stands 14" overall with the hemisphere light angled at 45°. High-gloss base comes in jet black, orange, parrot green. At W. & J. Sloane, 414 5th Ave., N.Y.C. $45. Reflective as a huge jewel, below, the exposed Tovibulb is a spherical two-way mirror. Off, the 5" bulb reflects whatever is near; on, the glare-free filament sparkles. Designed by Murray Tovi for Tovi & Perkins. At lamp departments, in aluminum, $5; 24k. gold, $10. Shown here at the blossom on chrome cylinder, 12" high, by Lighting Associates.

Plexiglas cube, complemented by oversized circular bulb, is hung on wall-mount that tilts for a variety of lighting effects. Cube, 4 1/4" square, in black, blue, red, or white. "Piccola" fixture, designed by Maurizio Rossi for Luminescence Ltd., about $90, through decorators.
